

Wine Spectator

W.H. Smith

W.H. Smith Wines Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast 2003

89pts. Ripe and zesty, with a tasty range of wild berry and blackberry fruit that's well-defined. Turns elegant and supple on the palate, with enough tannin to merit short-term cellaring. Drink now through 2008. 1,467 cases made. (JL) August 31, 2005 Issue