W.H. Smith Wines Pinot Noir Maritime 2005

Wine & Spirits
MAGAZINE

91pts. Dark, robust berry scents and deep pinot flavors form the core of this wine, fat and rich as a Russian River Valley pinot noir with more sun and brine. It's still young and a bit unformed, the charry oak, autumnal flavors and vibrant fruit needing time to meld. Cellar it for several years, then serve with acorn-fed boar or wild duck. April 2007 Issue

Wine Spectator

'Quality is rising across the board at an astonishing rate, at wineries expected to excel, such as Marcassin, Loring, Siduri and W.H. Smith...'

90pts. Aromas of ripe plum, blackberry, cedar and spice turn elegant and supple on the palate, with smooth tannins and good length. Turns delicate, with excellent balance. Drink now through 2010. 420 cases made.
